

New Kingstown Vision

January 2012 Newsletter

Have you noticed the trees along East Main Street, North Locust Point Road and at the West end of town? Our plans are to have more trees planted in the fall. Our thanks goes to Jeff Williams from the Silver Spring Parks & Rec department – he was very instrumental in helping us with this project and to Kristy Owens who will be helping us on the next phase. If you would like to help financially with this effort, please email us at newkingstownvision@gmail.com

Our streetscape is soon to become even more of a reality! Our grant money has been received and since the curb cuts, ramps and sidewalks have been completed at the intersections we will be able to proceed with the crosswalks. HRG, the new township engineering firm will assist us with this project. Watch for activity in the spring; the work must be completed by October.

There seems to be some movement on the punch list we had for the state after the completion of Route 11 – thanks to Terri Martini for all her help with these issues.

January 23, 2012 at 2 pm the county commissioners voted on additional funding for farmland preservation. The decision was made to stay with $250,000 in funding which means state funding will be ~$750,000.
